Roof Project update

Slowly, but surely things are beginning to move in preparation for the work to commence on the Roof Project.

We give thanks for a very generous gift which will help us start on the primaries of the roof repair.

We are just about to put in an application to Natural England for a licence to do the work on the roof. This licence is needed because we have bats roosting in the roof space, and they are a protected species. Without this licence we can not start the work. And of course, because of the bats, we are restricted to when the work can be done. The plans are to start the work, if the licence is granted at the beginning of March 2019.

Thanks you very much for all your concerns and prayers

The photos above give some idea of the complexities of our roof and the work involved.

Staying at Sizewell Hall

Among those who came to Sizewell Hall this summer was Julie Wilman, who wrote this about staying at Sizewell Hall. Thank you Julie.

Here we are gathered at Sizewell Hall.

*A joy to meet with one and all
Sun and sand, fun and games.*

Trying to remember everyone's names.

No WiFi, news or TV shows.

No plants to water, lawns to hose.

Just friends and rest and books to read.

And walks and games and kids to feed

And time alone with God to pray.

To focus just upon each day.

Long drives and flights and traffic queues

Are not for us – we'd rather choose the short hop up the Suffolk coast.

But now we're here both young and old,

The weather's gone from hot to cold.

To wet and windy, fresh and cool;

In a couple of days we've seen it all

But does it matter? Not a jot,

We're just content with what we've got.

So – enjoy all the activities

Your scooters, skates and bikes

Your table tennis tournaments,

Your strolls or swims or hikes.

That said, I'm heading off for cake,

A favourite thing on my Sizewell break!

Enjoy your break Church family,

And thank you for your company.

Summer at Sizewell Hall

Lovely blue sea—but brown grass!

Over the 6 weeks summer holiday we had just over 400 adults and children on the campsite. In the Hall there were just over 450 adults and children. We give thanks for all those who stayed here during summer, and for those who gave up holiday to run the various groups and for all those who attended. It was a very busy place!

Tell us your story.

Everyone one who comes to Sizewell Hall has a story to tell of how God has blessed them while they were here. We would love you to put them in writing and send them to us. We can then share them with others, so they too can be blessed. Details of where to send them are overleaf. Thank you so much
