After 6 years in the insurance business, David went off to Bible College to eventually complete a master's in theology and become a missionary (cunningly disguised as a semi-pro footballer) in the Czech Republic. Upon his return from Europe, David led churches and mission organisations in Salford and Bolton in the UK and Cleveland Ohio in USA. Whilst doing this David found time to marry Kerry. They with their teenage boys Ryan and Lewis have been living in Sleepy Suffolk since 2017 as David leads Bridge Community Church (formerly known as West Road) in Bury St Edmunds.
